Postmaster S. E. Juden.

It was no easy matter for us to overcome the modesty of S. E. Juden and obtain his consent for his picture to appear in this issue. Ed says it is the internal and not the external qualities of a man that count and that deeds and not photographs make up a man's life, but realizing that a beautiful person may live in an ugly house and that a beautiful soul may vibrate beneath a rough exterior, he consents for his picture to appear for the first time in life.

The subject of this sketch was born on a farm in Cape Girardeau county of this state, where his early life was spent tilling the soil and attending the rural school. At the age of 16 years he, with his widowed mother, located in Cape Girardeau, where he attended the State Normal school for four scholastic years, after which he taught in the schools of this state, and later studied law under the tutelage of Judge B. F. Davis, of Cape Girardeau. Being without funds with which to further pursue his studies he accepted a position with a wholesale grocery house in St. Louis, and for 15 years traveled in Missouri and Arkansas, being considered the most thoroughly posted man in his line traveling that territory. Mr. Juden came to this county about fourteen years ago, settling at Hayti, where he is making the best postmaster the city ever had. From 1908 to 1912 he was deputy sheriff of this county, making one of the best officers the county ever had. His fine ability and loyalty to duty make of him an ideal public officer. He has never aligned himself with any of the petty factions which tend only to create discord and strife in a community, hence, he is enabled to render most efficient service to the community. He says the public has him hired to run the post-office and is entitled to his constant and best efforts. Ed Juden is Master of the Masonic lodge, a Past Grand of the Odd Fellows. He enjoys the confidence and esteem of the community. To know him is to like him.

LIFE NEARLY EBBED AWAY

But Daughter Helps To Restore Sick Mother Again to Health And Duty.

Highwood, Mich.—"I was in a serious condition, and my life was nearly gone," writes Mrs. Clara Avery, of this place, "but I am feeling well now, as the result of having taken Cardui, the woman's tonic."

My sufferings extended over many years, and were made up of female troubles, such as backache, pain in my side, and dreadful dizzy spells.

I was all run down, and hardly able to drag around, when my oldest daughter got me a bottle of Cardui.

I had no faith in it, but took it nevertheless, and before I had finished half a bottle, I got better. Now I am well and able to do all my work."

Women who have to drudge away, at their own housework, often have to suffer from the results of overstrained womanly organs.

It should be a comfort for them to know that for such pains and weakness, there is at hand, on every dealer's shelf, a remedy, Cardui, the woman's tonic.

This successful tonic, prepared from nature's harmless herbs, aids nature in building up strength, for the worn-out womanly constitution.

It relieves the symptoms. It reaches the cause. It helps to make you well. Try Cardui.
